

Workshop: Concepts at Work

Room 502, The Maersdorf Faculty Club
Mount Scopus

THE HEBREW
UNIVERSITY
OF JERUSALEM

Schedule

Sunday, May 31, 2015

Gathering: 10:30-11:00

Opening remarks: 11:00-11:15

Panel 1 - 11:15-12:45

Raef Zreik, The Carmel Academic Center and the Minerva Humanities Center, Tel Aviv University -

Two Concepts of Self-Determination: A Kantian Perspective

Jonas Wolff, Peace Research Institute Frankfurt (PRIF) - Talking about Self-Determination Contested Conceptions and Political Implications of an Undisputed Concept

Mor Mitrani, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem - The International Community? What are you Talking about?

12:45-14:15 - Lunch

Panel 2 - 14:15-15:45

Brent J. Steele, University of Utah and Luke Campbell, University of Kansas - The Concept of Success

Neta Kremer, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem - Cyberattack: Policy of Vagueness

Philippe Beaulieu-Brossard, University of Ottawa - Systemic Operational Design or How I Began to Worry about the Dual Use of Critical Concepts

Panel 3 - 16:15-17:30

Oliver Kessler, University of Erfurt - Risk and Uncertainty in International Relations

Roei Kibrik, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem - Marx, Habermas and Gramsci Constructing Sovereignty in Jerusalem: Consensual, Essentially Contested and Destabilized Concept

Dinner - 19:30

Monday, June 1st, 2015

Panel 4 - 10:15-11:30

Christian Bueger, Cardiff University - Shifting Tides: Practice Theory, Conceptual Analysis and the Blue Economy

Ariel Zellman, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem - Concepts in Action: Homeland

Panel 5 - 11:45-13:15

Felix Berenskoetter, SOAS, University of London - The Concept of Friendship in German-Israeli Relations: Possibilities and Limits

Anna Geis, University of Magdeburg - A 'Stabilization Mission' is a 'Stabilization Mission' is a 'Stabilization Mission' is a 'War': Concept Avoidance in German's Security Policy since the 1990s

Jan Wilkens and Antje Wiener, University of Hamburg - Contesting Narratives of Global Constitutionalisation - Local Protests and Legitimacy in Global Governance

13:15-14:45 - Lunch

Panel 6 - 14:45-16:00

Christopher Hobson, Waseda University - 'Democracy is Gray'

Piki Ish-Shalom, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem - Engaged Academia in a Conceptually Contested Environment

16:15-16:45 Concluding remarks